History of Chocolate

February 14th, 11:00am

Chocolate dates back 1400 BC as a source of sugar for an alcoholic drink. By 1400 AD, Aztecs associated chocolate with the goddess of fertility, and used it as offerings. Chocolate arrived in Europe in 1585. In 1689, a physician developed a chocolate drink, which sold to the Cadbury brothers in 1897...
