‘Presidential Players’ are back in the bowling lane

CONCORD – After posting strong finishes in the last two years, the Presidential Players have been practicing weekly and are now ready to take on their opponents in the upcoming season of Wii Bowling in the National Senior League.

The nine-member team consists of Presidential Oaks Retirement Living residents Deane Mae Rangnow, Beverly Gilman, Aurea Laliberte, Evelyn Ide, Doris Alexander, Theresa Capozzi, Joan Wentworth, Francine Pinkos and Elaine Montminy.

During the 2014 season, members of the Presidential Players competed in the Regional Championship and although the team fell a bit short last year at a return to the finals, members are eager to get some wins under their belts for 2016.

Teams are made up of four senior bowlers and may have up to four substitutes. Each conference consists of eight teams, who play each other one time — for a total of seven matches. The successful teams advance to three or four weeks of playoffs. If they lose in the playoffs, a team is done. The NSL season runs for seven to 10 weeks.

The NSL Spring Championship has nearly 100 communities, 295 teams, and 1,500 bowlers from 30 states. Teams compete weekly for seven weeks followed by three weeks of playoffs. The tournaments feature Regional Championships (East, South, West/Midwest) in seven divisions based on level of ability.

Teams play where they live — no travel required. The NSL maintains statistics, makes the schedule, monitors results and gives out awards. All you need is a sponsoring retirement community, like Presidential Oaks.

Games begin on Monday, February 15 for the 2016 season. Good luck to this year’s Presidential Players participating in the National Senior League!
