Fathers are celebrated at Presidential Oaks Retirement Community

CONCORD – (June 23, 2015) The Father' Day celebration continued at Presidential Oaks on Monday as the Children's Center held a Father's Day French Toast breakfast for all the Dads whose children attend the center.

New Hampshire Odd Fellows Home Children's Center Director Brandy Alfieri cooked the French toast for the guests and the children enjoyed being able to decorate their food with colored sprinkles, butterscotch chips and whipped cream. There were lots of smiles and full bellies following the meal.

Presidential Oaks also held a Father's Day Breakfast Buffet on Sunday morning which was open to the public. More than 50 guests dined on breakfast favorites including eggs, sausage, French toast, waffles, fruit salad and sweet breads as well as corned beef hash and baked beans. Each father was given a gift to commemorate the day and all veterans received their meal complimentary as a special thank you.

The Children's Center has been a part of Presidential Oaks – originally called the New Hampshire Odd Fellows Home - for nearly 20 years and offers intergenerational activities such as lunches, arts and crafts and weekly story time in the library.

Presidential Oaks, known as New Hampshire Odd Fellows Home, has provided retirement living, assisted care and skilled nursing and rehabilitation to seniors since 1883. It has recently completed major renovations to Presidential Oaks Retirement and remains committed to providing affordable retirement living and cutting-edge nursing and rehabilitation care.
