Presidential Oaks residents say ‘thanks’ to military personnel

CONCORD – Residents of Presidential Oaks Retirement Living put their artistic talents to work by creating dozens of cards to be sent to military men and women in the various armed forces.

As part of “A Million Thanks” initiative, six Retirement Living residents created more than 60 cards to show their appreciation for active duty personnel and veterans.

The cards they were displayed during a recent Friends & Family dinner held at Presidential Oaks to allow for all to admire the handcrafted creations.

Residents who participated in the community service project included Leona McAllister, Beverly Gilman, Francine Pinkos, Elaine Montminy, Deane Mae Rangnow and Aureau Laliberte.

According to its website, the mission of “A Million Thanks” is to show support for active and veteran military men and women by sending letters of encouragement and well wishes. The organization also provides scholarships to the children of military personnel and veterans.

The cards were dropped off at Cross Roads Chiropractic in Pembroke to be distributed.

Presidential Oaks, known as New Hampshire Odd Fellows Home, has provided retirement living, assisted care and skilled nursing and rehabilitation to seniors since 1883. It has recently completed major renovations to Presidential Oaks Retirement and remains committed to providing affordable, accessible retirement living and cutting-edge nursing and rehabilitation care.
